

SSHRC Partnership on Quality in the Built Environment

(RE)INVESTING IN RESILIENCE: Provincial Funds for Adaptive Reuse

Political Action | Mariana Esponda, Carleton University | Nov 11, 2025

The (Re)vitalization Fund

We would like to present investments into Adaptive Reuse as an attractive opportunity rather than a duty.

Bayview Yards before reuse (2014)

The (Re)vitalization Fund

We would like to present investments into Adaptive Reuse as an attractive opportunity, rather than a duty.

Core evaluation criteria:

1. (Re)use existing buildings
2. (Re)duce environmental impacts
3. (Re)inforce inclusion, access and participation
4. (Re)frame sustainability beyond the environment

Reuse the existing

Office to Residential

Heritage to Social housing

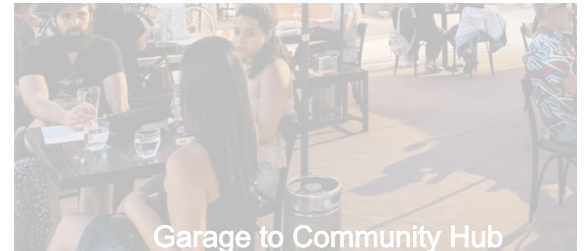

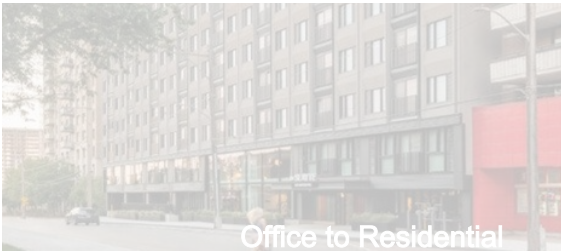

Garage to Community Hub

Reshape the future

Reuse the existing

Resilience is the REAL Jackpot

Reshape the future